

Design your own submarine!

To spark your creativity, look at images of existing submarines and their key features. Take your thinking a step further and draw on elements of nature. Consider the shape of a stingray, shark or octopus and think about how they move through the water. What about other vehicles used on land - can their design influence the creation of your own submarine? Remember to name your submarine.

